Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bapat et al. (US 5,847,580). Bapat teaches a programmable logic device, comprising:

a plurality of logic elements (CLBs) and a routing structure, wherein the routing structure comprises a plurality of distributed OR gates (85a..85d, figure 14), each distributed OR gate comprising logic circuitry having a plurality of inputs from a first plurality of logic elements distributed amongst said logic elements and forming a logic OR function from said inputs, and an output of each distributed OR gate being connected to a second plurality of logic elements distributed amongst said logic elements, wherein the routing structure is distinct from a programmable interconnect structure (programmable interconnect of figure 4) of the programmable logic device.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-16 and 18-20 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 11/7/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Art Unit: 2819

With respect to claim 17 arguments, the additional limitation does not overcome the prior art in that the routing structure and the interconnecting structure are distinct from each other as disclosed by Bapat. Therefore, the claim is anticipated

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
